meeting of the text-book committee of the Alexandria school board was held last night in Peabody Hall, when a list was selected for use in the public schools of Alexandria for the next four years. It will be forwarded to Richmond for approval by the state board of education. The committee consisted of the superintendent, members of the school board and teachers in the public schools.

Gov. Montague and party returned through Alexandria on a special electric train yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock after spending several hours at Mount Vernon at the annual meeting of the board of visitors of the home of Washington. With the governor were Gen. Archer Anderson and Mr. Gardner L. Boothe, the latter of this city, both also members of the board of visitors; Col. K. Kemper and Mr. A. D. Brockett of this city and Col. and Mrs. Thomas Smith of Warrenton. About 400 people, including many ladies, went out to the old fair grounds yesterday afternoon to witness the first game of the local Sunday School Base Ball League Teams from the schools of the Southern Methodist and the Methodist Protestan Churches battled for supermacy for nine innings, and the issue was doubtful until the last man was out, giving the victory to the Southern Methodists by the score of 12 to 11. The batteries were: Southern Methodist, Campbell and Chilcott; Methodist Protestant, Hicks and Glasgow. The remains of Charles W. Ignatius whose death occurred yesterday afternoon at the Alexandria Hospital, were forwarded last night to his former home in Cincinnati for interement. He was nineteen years of age and was the son of Mr. Charles Ig-natius of Cincinnati. Death was due to M. B. Harlow & Co., real estate brokers, sold today for Elizabeth Martin to Mattie E. Davis premises No. 212 South Patrick street, and for Julia Atwell to William Wotson premises No. 217 Walfe street

Watson premises No. 917 Wolfe street. The Alexandria base ball team will meet The Alexandria base ball team will meet the team representing the companies at Fort Hunt, Va., on the fair grounds Sat-urday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Mr. Frank Williamson, who has been studying at the University College of Medi-cine in Richmond, has returned to his home in this city for the vacation.

Methodists Report on Amusements-Elect Bishops Today.

A dispatch from Los Angeles, Cal., last night says: The episcopacy committee of the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church North, recommended the election of eight new bishops.

The recommendation was adopted by the conference and the election will be held The conference took up the report of the judiciary committee on the question of districting the bishops, and a heated debate ensued. Dr. Buckley and Dr. Neely engaged in a verbal encounter in which Dr. Neely was charged with misrepresenting the state ments of Bishop Harris upon the general superintendency of bishops. Other prominent speakers were Senator McClellan of New York, Dr. I. J. Cook of Chattanooga, Tenn.; Dr. Beeler of New York and Dr. Charles W. Fish, chairman of the judiclary

Dancing and Cards Still Barred. of the Methodist general conference having in charge the consideration of the proposed change of the rules in regard to dancing, card playing and theater-going has decided by a vote of 55 to 43 against recommending any change. This result was reached only after a vigorous and prolonged contest in after a vigorous and prolonged contest in the committee meeting.

A minority report, presented by members of the committee who favor a more liberal construction of these rules, was offered before the conference. It is understood the submission of these two reports to the general body will be the signal for the most spirited struggle of the present conference.

Additional candidates for bishops are appearing. Probably twenty names have been suggested. Prominent among those announcesuggested. Prominent among those announced as strong possibilities is Dr. George Edward Reed, professor of Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa.

Another is Dr. T. B. Ford of Oregon. Not to Restore Time Limit.

The committee on itinerancy, by a vote of 63 to 50, has decided against recommending any change in the pastoral time limit. A minority report will recommend the restoration of the five-year limit, with a special proviso for exceptional cases, in which a bishop may appoint for a longer term with the consent and approval of five other bish-

In the revision committee an effort to abrogate certain rules, originally promulgated by John Wesley, relating to the personal conduct of ministerial and lay members, was defeated.

FLOWERS ON THE WATER. Unique Ceremony in Memory of the Naval Veterans.

An interesting ceremony is expected to take place May 30, when, for the first time in this city, a number of ex-soldiers and sailors of the Union and others will assem ble on the water front to scatter flowers and appropriate floral emblems upon the historic Potomac river in memory of those who died while serving in the United States navy during the war of the rebellion. Farrugut Post, No. 10, G. A. R., and Farragut Corps, No. 5, W. R. C., will have charge of this ceremony, and the members will be assisted by Lincoln and Cushing Camps, Fons of Veterans, the Ladies' Aid Society, auxiliary to Cushing Camp, S. of V., the

The service used will be the one adopted by the national convention, W. R. C., last by the national convention, W. R. C., last year in California. The post and relief corps mentioned, having each been named after a naval hero, have been requested and assigned to the duty by the president of the Department of the Potomac, W. R. C., Mrs. Ida L. Chase. All naval veterans have been invited to be present and participate in this service. Stephen R. Whitney is expected to be present with a floral boat and will assist in the ceremonies, which will take place on the Pennsylvania avenue bridge immediately after the conclusion of the services in Congressional cemetery.

Soft Shell Crabs in Limited Quantity. Soft shelled crabs, the toothsome delicacy from the waters of the Potomac, for whose appearance epicures have been waiting in anticipation of a feast, are here at last, but while the quality is fine the quantity is very small. The steamer quantity is very small. The steamer Harry Randall had three small boxes, containing less than 100 soft crabs each, in her cargo this morning, consigned to dealers. They came from the shores of Nomini creek and are the first that have come to the city this season. The catch of the crabs will grow larger daily and they will be shipped almost daily for the next three or four weeks.

Miss Albertina Taylor Winthrop, daugh-Miss Albertina Taylor Winthrop, daughter of Mrs. Robert Winthrop, was married yesterday afternoon to Mr. Herman J. Van Roijen, the charge d'affaires of the Netherlands legation, at the residence of the bride's mother, No. 38 East 37th street, New York city. A beautiful arrangement of flowers made a grotto effect in the drawing room. The bride was gowned in white satin, the skirt flounced with old family noint lace and the bodies formed of it. The point lace and the bodice formed of it. The bridegroom's gift, a diamond brooch with pendants, was worn. Mr. Van Roijen's best man was Mr. Yonkheer R. de Marces Van Swinderen, the recently appointed min-ister from the Netherlands. There were no ushers. A reception followed the cere-mony, to which about two hundred were invited. A buffet luncheon was served in the dining room and library. Senator and the Misses Kean were among the invited guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Roijen will take a short wedding trip and then will sail for Europe. They intend to return in August and spend some time at Bar Harbor before going to Constantinople, where the young diplomat is to be stationed.
